LANCASTER.

Miss Allie Anderson entertained on Saturday afternoon in honor of Miss Pattle Beazley.

An able visiting minister will preach at the Christian church on Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock.

Easter seems to have been changed from an occasion for commemorating the resurrection of the Savior to a day for raising bonnets about two inches higher than usual.

The fiscal court adjourned on Thursday. It allowed $150 to supplement the salary of Commonwealth's Attorney J. S. Owlesley, which net is approved, the salary being insufficient.

The show of millinery goods at Mrs. Moody Harden's, prepared by Miss Lou Graham, was highly attractive and drew a large crowd. Miss Nellie Dilson helped to receive the guests.

It looks like the independence of Cuba will be declared and intervention to enforce it, but I will wager 10 acres of sheep that there will be no war. Spain is playing a bluff and will throw down her hand.

U. S. Deputy Collector Thos. Austin has returned from Jackson county, where he heard of an illicit distillery, which he raided, but the still was moved before his arrival and he was forced to be content with pouring out a quantity of beer.

A motion was made before the county court to change the road from the mouth of Back Creek to the Buckeye pike so as to avoid a creek. The trial consumed the entire day Saturday and the proposed road was established after making certain allowances for damages.

Mr. J. E. Carson was here a few days ago and, with the help of Mr. J. H. Kincaid, finished issuing stock for a telephone line from here to Crab Orchard, and it will be built at once. Phones will be placed at Sweeney Morgan's store, Pendergrassville, Mr. Carson's and other points along the road. It promises to be a paying line.

Louis Wood, of the Harrodsburg Sayings, and J. G. Saunders, of the Democrat, were here on Sunday, but not on professional business. Master Robert, son of Hon. R. H. Tomlinson, is sick of pneumonia. Squire R. Boyles, a Federal veteran, has asked for a commission to raise a company if war is declared. Jesse Sanders has gone to Frankfort to accept a position as prison guard.

The marriage of John S. Bangham, of Boyle, to Miss Fannie Beazley at the Christian on Tuesday evening promises to be a brilliant affair. Rev. T. H. Campbell will officiate and Mr. Brown Beazley, brother of the bride, will conduct her to the altar. Mr. Homer Bangham, brother of the groom, will be best man. Miss Allie Anderson will be maid of honor, and Misses Jessie Burnside, Mattie Elkin, Alice Hudson, Little Brown and Sallie Steele, other maids in attendance. Miss May Hughes will play the wedding march, and Mrs. Juliet Rogers, Miss Addie Burnside, Messrs. Frank West and J. C. Hemphill will render the wedding chorus. It will be a full-dress affair, the church will be handsomely decorated by Misses Sallie Elkin and Bettie Anderson and a large crowd of friends and relatives will witness the imposing ceremonies. The party will leave immediately to attend a reception at the home of the groom in Danville, carrying with them the congratulations and best wishes of the entire community.

The following delegation went to Louisville Friday to confer with the L. & N. railway officials, concerning a better train service for Lancaster. Messrs. B. F. Hudson, J. W. Miller, R. Kincaid, S. C. Denby, Louis Landrum and J. M. Farra. I am indebted to Capt. Landrum for a statement of the result. The following plan was kindly adopted by General Manager J. G. Metcalfe: The mail and express train now running from Cincinnati to Lexington will be run to Stanford via Lancaster. It will leave Stanford after the arrival of the night trains from Knoxville and Louisville, passing Lancaster at about 2:30 A. M., arriving at Cincinnati at 8:30 A. M. This train returning will leave Cincinnati at 7:30 P. M., passing Lancaster about midnight, making close connection at Stanford for both Louisville and Knoxville, reaching Louisville at 7:30 A. M. This gives through and quick express service to Louisville and Cincinnati. The present train will be reversed and will come down from Richmond, passing Lancaster about 11 o'clock, making connection for Louisville at Stanford, and returning after arrival of Louisville train, passing Lancaster about 2:30. This train will also carry mail and express and put the afternoon mail here one hour earlier. It will be seen at a glance that one can spend the day in Cincinnati or Louisville and return that night. We will not be forced to hire conveyance to Stanford or Danville to go from home and the mail, express and freight service is first-class and such as should be enjoyed by our people who are extensive shippers of stock and produce and who go from home very frequently. This is but justice to them, especially when it is remembered that they contributed largely to the construction of the road.

The people are grateful to the gentlemen who presented the matter in its true light to the road officials and to Mr. Metcalfe for his kind and courteous treatment to them and for the service to be given; and it is believed and hoped that the change will increase the travel and shipments of the road, as, under the present system, a large part of it goes over the C. S. railway.

MCKINNEY.

A 10 days' old grand-son of Samuel Hinds died of some infantile trouble here Friday morning.

Your Waynesburg scribe, Mr. "Bud" Reynolds, called on the writer last Friday and spent an hour in pleasant conversation.

Two more dogs have been killed in town within the last few days, and there are dozens of others here not mad that ought to be killed.

A. J. Barron bought last week of the Jones heirs a house and lot on Middlebury street, for which he paid $250. He will probably move into it at an early date.

The Lord's Supper was observed at the Baptist church Sunday morning. According to the custom of the congregation this occurs quarterly during the year.

Old Aunt Manda Alcorn, quite an aged Negress, died at the old tall-house on the Green River pike, South of town, a week ago. She was a good old darkey and one of the best known in this section.

The schools here are moving on nicely. Prof. Hall now has 41 pupils enrolled with a good attendance. We are not advised as to the number attending Miss Kennedy's school, which is on the West side of the railroad, South of the depot.

Frank Hughes has moved from the old Lee property to K. L. Tanner's house on Mill street. M. T. Reynolds is expected to move into the property vacated by Mr. Hughes this week. Mr. Reynolds is an old citizen of Waynesburg from which place he comes.

Some funny things have occurred here inside the last 10 days. Both the saloon and anti-saloon people have been on the alert. Some fellows who had obligated themselves in writing to protest against the sale of whisky here have "gone square back" on their word and signatures and are looked upon now as nothing more than common "floaters."

Doe Brough is raising a company to go and fight the Spaniards. So far Dr. Robards and Archie Riffe are the only recruits. The doctor wants to go as a surgeon, while Archie has not yet expressed himself as wishing to attain to higher honors than that of Chaplain. Doe, as captain will not confer titles before his company reaches Key West.

The saloon here has recently captured two good railroad jobs and is seeking others to disgrace. Who will be its next man to sacrifice on the altar of drunkenness? Reader, will you kindly contribute a boy with all his manly traits and prospects of future usefulness to the support of this school of idleness, vice and crime? Have you a husband, son, or brother to spare? If none at all, it must live not only at the expense of the morals, but of the souls of our loved ones.

The two men, Hogie and Peyton, who were before the "Pizen" Squire here last week and fined $100 each for shooting on the highway near town, are not through with the law's dealings yet. The witnesses who saw them draw their revolvers from places of concealment on their persons are here and ready to testify to the fact. Probably a dozen cases can be made against them for the one day's sport. Whisky comes high when the final cost is counted by a conscientious collector.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Reynolds came out from Stanford Saturday and spent the night at the old home near town, attending church here Sunday. They were members of the Baptist church, by which they were granted letters of dismissal Sunday morning. They will unite with the Baptist church in Stanford. Willie D. Gooch now has charge of the railroad section here, instead of B. F. Stetson, who was removed on the last day of March. Mr. Stetson's family will leave here this week.

Henry Hammelstein and family, of Danville, are visiting his brother Jake here. Miss Cora Davidson, of Somerset, is visiting relatives and friends here since Wednesday. Miss Florence Tanner has returned from a two weeks' visit to relatives in Lexington. Miss Alice Gooch returned from Louisville last week, whether she had been putting up in a more extended knowledge of the millinery business. Rev. T. H. Coleman came down from Burgin Wednesday and has been visiting among his memberships and preached some good sermons since. Mrs. John S. Adams, of Waynesburg, visited Mrs. Lola Gooch last week.

Last week your Middlebury correspondent referred to McKinney's desperate reputation, but neglected to say that it had been attained since the demoralizing whisky traffic was driven from his own beloved country. Who can not remember the famous Yosemitie of Casey county and "rep" for doggeries a few years ago? All honor to the good and determined citizens of Casey, who crushed the life out of the terrible business in their midst, and converted their whisky cursed towns into moral pillars of legitimate business. Just now Mr. Middlebury we do not deny your charge, but wait a few weeks and see our transformation. The saloon is going to leave this town with a kick from every good man in it.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

Thomas Asher, of Crowley, S. C., saturated his clothes with coal oil and set fire to it. He was burned to a crisp. Disappointment in love is said to have been the trouble.

Mr. Casey B. Allin, deputy circuit clerk, and Miss Ora E. Vanarsdall, the pretty and attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Vanarsdall, will be united in marriage the 12th—Harrodsburg Democrat.

Rev. John F. White, one of the oldest ministers in Western Kentucky, died at his home in Cadiz, after a long illness. He was 81 years old and had been actively engaged in ministerial work for 60 years.

It has just been found out at London that J. S. Johnson, a school teacher, and Miss Vina Harderford, a pupil at the Sue Bennett Memorial School, are husband and wife. They have been married nearly a month.

Mr. George A. Kirkland and Miss Sallie Hoekler of Parksville, drove to Danville yesterday and were quietly married at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James P. Harbinson, by Rev. J. R. Savage. Mr. Kirkland is a well-known business man of the West End and the bride is a sister of Assessor George H. Hoekler and a most admirable woman. They have the congratulations of many friends.—Livingston Co. Mt. Vernon Signal.

Chas. Hagar and Thomas Nolan, two young farmers of Wayne county, quarelled on account of alleged intimacy of Hager with Nolan's wife. In the fight that followed Nolan was dangerously shot and Hager badly beaten about the head.

Last year Danville insurance agents received from their customers a total of $23,941 in premiums, while the fires losses in this vicinity for the same period aggregated only $12,489, thus leaving a good balance in favor of the companies.—Advocate.

The Jessamine commissioners appointed to appraise the Lexington and Danville turnpike, the gates of which are being guarded by the State troops, valued it at $6,500, which is unsatisfactory all around. The matter will come up for final settlement at the June term of the court and the soldiers will remain on guard until then at a cost of about $2,000 per month.

Under the new registration law, all druggists are required to register. Heretofore this was only required in towns of 1,000 population or over. To register, the druggist must have a diploma from a reputable college of pharmacy, or have had five years' practice before the date of his application. This will work a hardship on many country druggists who have not had the required five years' experience.

The killing of former Sheriff A. B. Howard and his son, Wils Howard, from ambush in Clay county, and the subsequent murder of George Baker, has caused another reign of terror in the mountains. The Howards and Bakers fell out over the ownership of some logs, and in the fight which followed the Howards, father and son, were killed. Jim Howard, a brother of Wils, hearing of the tragedy, went to George Baker's store and killed him, after which he fled to Marion county.

Rev. Fred D. Hale, the noted Baptist preacher and pastor of the 3rd church in Owensboro, was stricken with appendicitis and was operated on at Memphis. At last accounts he was in a critical condition.

In accordance with her repeatedly expressed wish the body of Mrs. Frances E. Willard, of the W. C. T. U., was cremated Saturday at Chicago in the presence of the new president of the association and other ladies.

PLAY BALL.—Reds vs. Clevelands, Cincinnati April 17. $1.25 round trip from Junction City and Danville, Ky., Queen & Crescent Route. See the first game! Help open the season! Ask agents for particulars. W. C. Rhinehart, G. P. A., Cincinnati, O.

My wife has used Chamberlain's Palm Balsam for rheumatism with great relief, and I can recommend it as a splendid liniment for rheumatism and other household use for which we have found it valuable.—W. J. CULLEY, Red Creek, N. Y.

Mr. Culley is one of the leading merchants in this village and one of the most prominent men in this vicinity.—W. G. PIPPINS, Editor Red Creek Herald. For sale by CRAIG & HOCKER, Drug-gists.

Six stores were burned at Marion, causing a loss of $10,000.

NEWS IN THE VICINAGE.

Thomas C. Page, of Corbin, has enlisted in the U. S. army.

Henry Petty, who killed Mart Turner, near Danville, Casey county, was acquitted last week.

A postoffice has been established at Felix, Russell county, with Lawrence M. Wilson as postmaster.

Mr. Anthony Dey, of New York, has sent 125 new books to be added to the Dey collection in the Danville library.

Henry Haynes, a Negro preacher from Tennessee, dropped dead in Midway and the colored population there is all scared up.

E. H. P. Palmer, a jeweler of Richmond, died from an attack of pneumonia. He was left a good fortune by "Pap" Ruff, the noted bicyclist.

Gov. Bradley refused to pardon John Rooney, of Laurel county, serving a term on a charge of throwing a switch open and destroying railroad property.

The State is preparing to erect two new buildings at Danville for the use of the faculty of the School for the Deaf. The improvements will cost $1,000.

The residence of Mrs. Stevie Cardwell at Harrodsburg, caught fire and was totally destroyed. Loss about $15,000, with $8,000 insurance. It was one of the finest dwellings in the city.

Mrs. M. M. Overstreet denies the Middlesboro News story that her husband will return to Corbin and in her paper reads the editor a nice little lecture on publishing manufactured reports.

Hamp Gragg, a brother of Craig and George Gragg, who were sent to the penitentiary from Laurel for murder, shot and seriously wounded James Ellison, at Pittsburg, and is now in jail at London.

Mrs. Shannon McKinney has joined her husband here and have taken rooms at the Dillon mansion. Mr. McKinney is our barber and will move his family here as soon as he can get a house.—Livingston Co. Mt. Vernon Signal.

Chas. Hager and Thomas Nolan, two young farmers of Wayne county, quarreled on account of alleged intimacy of Hager with Nolan's wife. In the fight that followed Nolan was dangerously shot and Hager badly beaten about the head.

NOTICE!

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

The fiscal court of Lincoln county will meet Friday, 15th, and it will have under consideration the best way and method of keeping in repair the turnpikes the court has bought, whether it shall be done under the supervision of one superintendent or whether it shall be by appointed overseers over certain sections or miles of the turnpikes. For the purpose of ascertaining the best way, the fiscal court would be pleased to have the suggestions of the people and taxpayers generally on this important subject, and they are cordially invited to meet with the court.

JAS. P. BAILEY,
Judge Lincoln County Court.

An overcoat worn by Judge Grider, of Bowling Green, caught fire while he had it on and he made the insurance company settle the loss. His policy reads loss by fire of house, household and kitchen furniture and wearing apparel.

Judge Barker, at Louisville, delivered an opinion in the criminal court holding the slot machines to be gambling devices.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., - APRIL 12, 1898

W. P. WALTON.

HON. G. G. GILBERT,

Of Shelby County, a candidate for Congress in the Eighth Congressional District of Kentucky, subject to the action of the democratic party.

We are authorized to announce

HON. JAS. B. MCCREARY

Of Madison County, a candidate for Congress in the Eighth Congressional District of Kentucky, subject to the action of the democratic party.

SPAIN'S last move so as to secure more time is to grant an armistice in Cuba for five days in order to treat with the insurgents. This she does on the alleged excuse that the powers have asked it, but her further demands that all American ships be removed from Cuba and Philippine Island waters and that all moral and material support be withdrawn, add insult to injury, being in itself almost a caveat belli and the feeling against the insolent nation that made it has grown to the deepest indignation. In the proposed armistice nothing is said about Cuban independence, but it is understood that if sufficient indemnity is paid for the island and the amount secured by the United States, Spain will willingly accept this horn of the very bad dilemma into which she has gotten herself. Except for the wavering, wishy-washy policy of the president Spain would have long since been called to account and if she is not now made to suffer, Congress should ignore him and proceed to declare war at once. If Spain does not accede immediately to every demand, carrying with it the independence of Cuba and the fullest indemnity for her cowardly part, if not her full responsibility, for the blowing up of the Maine and the killing of 266 of our brave officers and men.

Gen. Fitzhugh Lee is again on American soil and on his way to Washington, having left Havana at 6 P. M., Saturday, with all the Americans that could get away. Gen. Blanco refused to see Gen. Lee, whom he called to say good-bye and the Americans were insulted and hooted at as they embarked on the Fern and three other ships. It is thought since Blanco's action that Gen. Lee did not leave the island too soon as he would likely have been murdered had he staid. Beneath the shadow of Morro Castle as he sailed out Gen. Lee gave this toast: "Here is to the officers and men of the Maine, which was blown up by a Spanish mine." He is anxious to be allowed to lead the first division on Havana and says he know how to take the city. Let him be allowed to do so by all means.

JUDGE FAULCONER, of Lexington, who discharged Jacob S. Harris for assassinating Thomas H. Merritt, when he found him and his wife in a loving attitude in a Lexington park, has been vindicated in turning him loose under the unwritten law. On an indictment charging him with murder, Harris was acquitted after a long drawn out trial, the jury deliberating on it 24 hours after the issue was submitted to it. Harris long since condoned his wife's unfaithfulness and they have been living together, as if it had never been shown that she was as much to blame as Merritt. The unwritten law, however, seems to uphold a man in murdering the fellow who invades the sanctity of his home, no matter how cowardly he may strike the blow, and perhaps it is right after all. A fellow fool enough to seek married women for his wife, deserves to die a dog's death and no sympathy is ever wasted on him.

THE formal announcement of the Hon. G. G. Gilbert, of Shelby, for Congress, appears in this issue. He was here yesterday and in a speech which took well with our people, presented his claims and promised to represent them to them to the best of his ability, if given the nomination, which he was sure would be equivalent to election. Mr. Gilbert represented his Senatorial district in the Legislature and has held other offices with credit to himself and satisfaction to his constituents. His father was raised in this county and he has relatives as well as many friends in Lincoln.

IN the event of war, which now seems certain, the money will be raised by an increase on the tax on whisky, beer, manufactured tobacco, tea, coffee, and probably on bank checks, drafts, deeds, mortgages and similar papers. A bill will also be introduced providing for a temporary loan of $100,000,000 and a permanent loan of from $300,000,000 to $500,000,000 at 3 per cent., payable in coin. It takes money and a great deal of it to prosecute a war, but this country is equal to the emergency.

THE "Thou Shalt Not Steal" party in Pennsylvania has nominated Dr. Swallow, who got 119,000 votes for treasurer on the prohibition ticket last fall, for governor, but he will not be elected. The people who march under that banner are not numerous enough in this country to elect more than an occasional constable or so.

The Washington Post says that if Col. Jack Chinn could be induced to come to the capital, war would be started at once. Then let the bellicose Jack go now by all means. We need a man with sand in his erew and stifling in his backbone, like Jack's, in the presidential chair.

MESSAGE GOES AT LAST.
WEAK AND WAVERING AND DISAPPOINTING.

DEMOCRATS AND MANY REPUBLICANS DENOUNCE IT.

WASHINGTON, April 11, 1 P. M.—The president's message was sent to Congress at noon and is in brief as follows:

Favors armed intervention to terminate war in Cuba and asks discretionary authority to use the army and navy; opposes the recognition of Cuban republic and the belligerency of the insurgents, quoting Jackson, Grant and Cleveland to support his position and says the only hope of relief for a condition, which can no longer be endured, is in the enforced pacification of the island.

Arent the Maine it says the destruction of our battleship by external agency shows that Spain is not able to guarantee security to foreign vessels, tells that Spain offered to arbitrate the Maine affair, but no reply to this proposition was made. The case it says is now with Congress and the president awaits its action to carry out every obligation imposed by the constitution.

Spain's decree for a suspension of hostilities is submitted to Congress for just and careful attention with observation that if the measure attains a successful result "then our aspirations as a peace loving people will be realized."

The message was referred in the Senate and House without action.

Democrats fiercely denounce the message and but few republicans endorse the president. Many like Senator Foraker, freely express their bitter disappointment.

Revolted republicans are organizing for radical action and sentiment now is that war is inevitable.

Forty officers and 540 men are required to man the cruiser New York.

Supposing a war would cost us $500,000,000, and Spain is not able to pay the bill? She has a few islands other than Cuba, which we could trade to Great Britain for cash.

An English electrician and manufacturer of mines and torpedoes makes out a strong case of Spanish official responsibility for the Maine disaster. He sold to Spain the mines for Havana harbor.

The largest order ever given by the government for submarine cable, to be used for torpedo purposes, has been given a firm at Seymour, Ct., conditional on early shipment. It is for 50 miles of conductor single marine and 15 miles of No. 2 submarine cable. The works will be required to run night and day for several weeks.

Poor Cuba! For three years, damnation in all its infamy has been visited upon her helpless and God-forsaken people by a hell-deserving aggregation of uncivilized fiends, whose like could scarcely be duplicated in Satan's dominion, yet civilized America, the home of freedom, whose sons have never turned aside from friend or foe, can only say, fight if you can, die if you must, no earthly help is nigh. —Glossy News.

DUNN WITHDRAWS.—Realizing that there are a great many people who think that no road commissioner should be elected, and desiring to do nothing against the will of the majority, I have decided to withdraw as a candidate for that office. —A. C. Dunn.

THE fiscal court is uncertain as to the proper course to pursue with reference to the turnpikes and Judge J. P. Bailey asks the tax-payers to meet here Friday and help it solve the question. No one with whom we have talked advocates the commissioner plan.

EASTER dawned as brightly and as beautiful as ever shone and continued so till near noon, when clouds overspread the sky and rain came pouring down. It was showery all afternoon and night, but yesterday was a lovely day with signal service promises of fair to-day.

THE Crab Orchard people can now talk with us and all the towns around for 25 cents. Mr. A. H. Bastin, owner of the line, tells us that the office at Crab Orchard is at his store at the depot, where he will wait on all who call promptly.

A PETITION was being numerously signed here yesterday against the election of a commissioner to take charge of the turnpikes. Such an office would simply increase the expenses of the county $1,000 or more, which God knows are heavy enough now.

THE champion bad boy lives in Mercer and his name is Herinian Bradshaw. He is only 15 years old, but after a savage attack on his mother, whom he beat badly, he could only be arrested while a sleep. He fortified himself in the attic and with gun in hand defied the officers to enter. If he does not die with his boots on before death for the gallows seems to be pretty sure for the promising young devil.

A PENGUIN.—Mr. M. T. Russell, of Millidgeville, brought to this office yesterday a very peculiar bird, killed by John Dishon, that comes nearer the description of a penguin than any thing we can find. When first sighted it divided about 500 yards but Mr. Dishon finally got near enough to put a ball through its head with a rifle. The bird weighed 18 pounds and is beautifully marked with white specks on black. Mr. Russell will add the curiosity to his well-stocked museum.

THE day of "blind tigers" at Junction City is rapidly coming to a close. The town trustees and the better class of people have organized to fight the illegal sale of whisky and neither time nor means will be spared in stopping it. A committee composed of Agent Lingle, of the L. & N., Mrs. Clarkson and Rev. Boswell, the Christian church preacher, has been appointed to wait on those parties who are suspected and inform them that they must stop selling intoxicants or stand the consequences, and as business is meant the prospects are that Junction City will soon be a better town.

IN the county court yesterday E. W. Allen was authorized to solemnize marriages. The liquor license of J. W. James at Crab Orchard was transferred to F. M. Wallin. The wills of A. C. Newland and Wm. Hubble were admitted to probate. H. E. Newland with J. M. Coffey and J. T. Bingamman as executors of the former and R. L. Hubble of the latter with L. F. and Lorenzo Hubble and M. B. Enbanks as security. Assignee Helm presented a statement of the assets of A. F. Moberly and his and his securities were discharged. Al Burns was granted liquor license at Hustonville. The trial of the application of P. W. Green for license at McKinney was postponed till this morning.

SPEAKING.—According to announcement, Hon. G. G. Gilbert, of Shelby, candidate for Congress, was here on Tuesday and after being introduced by County Chairman J. E. Carson, delivered a fine address, which was well received and applauded. He told of his record as a democrat and of his devotion to the cause and asked our people to remember him when they were called to select a candidate. By an agreement he spoke an hour and then Gov. James B. McCreary was present.

The Elizabethtown News published in its record in Congress and what he would do if elected again. The people were fully aware of his course and before he would deceive them he would retire permanently from public life. His speech was a good one and added more friends to his list. In his 15 minutes rejoinder, Mr. Gilbert told the governor to task on some of his assertions and raised a laugh or two. A very large crowd listened throughout to the speech, both of which were in good taste.

BRIEF NEWS NOTATION.

Fully 100 people were killed in a snow slide at Skagway, Alaska, April 3rd.

Alex Shiveley, of Belle Plains, Ill., ended a spree by drinking embolining fluid.

Old Red Wilkes, over 25 years of age, was sold at Philadelphia for $600. Director brought $1,275. Director Moore, four years old, half brother of Nancy Banks, sold for $1,225, and a yearling half brother to Nancy Banks to P. Duryea of Lexington, for $500.

Only four stallions were exhibited yesterday the smallest number for years. There were: Oldenburg, owned by M. S. Baughman; Lincoln King, the property of W. H. Murphy; Madison Sandidge & Son's Gilt Edge and A. E. Hundley's Ground Squirrel. They were all in good shape and made creditable runs.

The Elizabethtown News published in its record in Congress and what he would do if elected again. The people were fully aware of his course and before he would deceive them he would retire permanently from public life.

His speech was a good one and added more friends to his list. In his 15 minutes rejoinder, Mr. Gilbert told the governor to task on some of his assertions and raised a laugh or two.

A very large crowd listened throughout to the speech, both of which were in good taste.

MISS KATHIE LEE YEAGER, of Danville, is visiting relatives here.

TINSLEY SPOONAMORE is up after a six weeks' siege of maternal fever.

MISS MARY VARNON went up to her coal lands in Brummett Saturday.

MRS. WM. GEER left for Columbus Grove, O., Saturday to visit relatives.

MISS SUSIE COOLEY went to Lebanon Junction Saturday to visit friends.

DR. J. M. BRONAUGH is back from the Ohio College of Surgery at Cincinnati.

MRS. JOSEPH COFFEE and Joe Lynn came down from Livingston Friday to visit friends.

MISSES MATTIE ELKIN and Bessie Burnside, of Garrard were the guests of Miss Pearl Burnside.

MR. AND MRS. WM. KISSICK, of Lexington, are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Wm. Hamilton.

COL. W. G. WELCH has been asked to address the Commercial Convention to be held in Louisville.

MISSES MINNIE AND CORINNE KIRK PATRICK, of Maywood, are visiting Mrs. Smith Forman in Lexington.

MRS. CHARLES HEWITT is in Lexington at the bedside of her husband, who is dangerously ill in the asylum.

MR. PETER MOHLEY came up from Nelson county Sunday to see his son, J. S. Mohley, of the McKinney section.

MRS. B. C. PENNYHACKER, of Kingsville, went over Saturday to visit her daughter, Mrs. P. Dineen, at Ludlow.

MRS. M. P. ELLIOTT, of Somerset, was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. William Pettus, of the Gilberts Creek section.

MRS. E. L. OWSLEY will go to New York next week to visit her brother, Mr. Benjamin Letcher.—Lancaster Record.

MR. W. G. BURTON has returned from Nashville where he has been attending a medical college. He will graduate next term.

CAPT. J. B. DOUGLAS, of Jellico, passed down to Lebanon Friday to meet with the Knight Templar lodge of that place, of which he is a member.

We did not hear until a few days ago that another son had arrived at Mr. Forestus Reid's. The promising youngster has been named for his father.

MISS NANSETTE HEATH, teacher of elocution in Hardin Institute, Elizabethtown, spent Saturday and Sunday with her sister, Mrs. A. H. Severance.

MR. LEE MYERS, of Garrard, a good old Confederate and a splendid gentleman, attended Gen. Gordon's lecture and went home delighted that he had come.

MISS PEARL BURNSIDE went to Lebanon yesterday to visit Miss Lucia McAffee and attend a home talent entertainment this evening in which Miss McAffee takes part.

MANAGER GUS HOPPMANN, of Crab Orchard Springs, went over to Lexington Saturday to see Gen. Gentry about the reunion of the Gentry family which will be held at the Springs in August.

WANTED—Agents for the great new book, Life of Francis Willard; $10 a month guaranteed. Address R. Emmett Marrs, Danville, Ky.

A MAN named Angel was acquitted at Somerset of the charge of robbing a widow. Now but a Pulaski county grand jury would have indicted a man with so good a name for such an offense.

SOME 25 Odd Fellows from Harrodsburg will come up this afternoon and assist the lodge here in initiating Robert Lewis and U. S. Traylor. The visitors will be entertained by the home lodge.

TWO YEARS.—Bud Akers, who forged the name of J. D. Dalton, of Moreland, to a check, on trial at Somerset, was given two years. The Reporter says the young man wept bitterly when he heard the verdict.

WHITE WANTED.—Samuel Bastin, of Highland, advertised in the Somerset Paragon for a wife. He wants a woman between 20 and 40, and in his ad, says he is 61, draws a pension and neither whisks nor tobacco.

BURNED OUT.—A. C. Menefee, of Rockcastle, whose house was burned last week, was here Saturday soliciting help. He tells us that he was married to his second wife in opposition to the family and that his house was burned before he could get his new wife there. His loss is about $100 and it was all he had.

INDEPENDENT OF RAILROADS.—A well rigged two-horse wagon arranged for a family to live and cook in, with places for fowls and other farm necessities, passed here Friday en route to Waynesburg. It contained Thomas Orcutt and family, of Hardin county, O., and they had made the trip from there via Maysville in 12 days. Mr. Orcutt has traded for Mr. McNeal's farm of 125 acres near Waynesburg and will make that his home.

THE Easter service of the Home Mission and Parsonage Society of the Methodist church, though somewhat hampered by a heavy rain, was largely attended and greatly enjoyed for it was creditable and pleasing throughout. The pulpit stand, on which the performers stood, was artistically decorated with potted flowers and evergreens and when the ladies in their pretty new hats and Spring gowns added further to the beauty of the scene, it was indeed one to be admired. Mrs. J. W. Bryant, who is president of the society, presided very graciously and to her is due much of the success of the service. The program consisted of music, which was excellent, and essays, recitations and exercises, which were well given. Those who took part were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bryant, Misses Annie Hiatt, Minnie Hiatt, Mary Matheny, Julia Higgins, Annie Davitt, Grace Grinstead, Fannie Spoonamore, Katherine Grinstead, Minnie Straub and Annie Straub and Mr. T. D. Raney.

LEE.—James Lee, whose illness has been noted in these columns, died Thursday night of a stomach trouble which began some eight months ago. Previous to that time he was a very healthy man. Mr. Lee was foreman of bridge carpenters on this division of the L. & N. for years and was not only a splendid man in his business, but an excellent citizen as well. For 10 years he had lived in Stanford and no man stood higher for honor and integrity. Some 12 years ago he married a Miss Jones, of Milan, Tenn., and she with four sons, the youngest only three years old, are left to mourn the loss of a kind husband and indulgent father. The remains were taken to Milan Friday and Saturday laid to rest in the burying ground of Mrs. Lee's family. Mr. Lee lived at Woodbine for years and his mother is still there. He was highly thought of by the company for which he worked and by all others who knew his many sterling qualities.

THE small-pox quarantine has been raised on the C. V. Division and trains Nos. 23 and 24 now run to Middlesboro as formerly. Instead of Jellico, we are told by Master of Trains B. N. Roller,

GEN. GORDON.—A pretty fair crowd attended the lecture of Gen. John B. Gordon, but not a sufficient number to keep the management of the Opera House out of the hole, the receipts being less than the expenses by a number of dollars. It requires a large guarantee to get such lecturers as the general, but even if we did lose we are glad we gave those of our people who appreciated it a last chance to see and hear the great and good man, before he shall be called to rest with his beloved Jackson under the shade of the trees, which in the very nature of things can not be long. His exciting and active life is telling on him and deep furrows are being plowed on his manly features. Going into the war for the Lost Cause before he was 30 as a captain, he was promoted step by step till he reached the high rank of Lieutenant general and became one of Gen. Lee's most trusted officers. He was wounded eight times, five times in the battle of Sharpsburg. Only two, however, proved very serious, one in his left cheek, which shattered the bone and left a deep hole in it, and another in the head, fracturing the skull, the latter confining him for seven months. He not only bled but came near dying twice for the cause he loved. After the war his people proud of his patriotism and gallant achievement elected him to civil offices, made him governor and afterwards for two terms had him to represent them in the United States Senate. In every position he bore himself with distinguished credit and gave his people further cause to be proud of him. This is belief is the record of the grand old man, who told us Thursday night of the causes that led to the war and the spirit that animated the people of the South prior to its declaration, after he had been eloquently introduced by Judge M. C. Saulsby, himself a gallant Confederate. We shall not attempt to even give a synopsis of the splendid lecture on the "First Days of the Confederacy," which singularly enough the general says he wrote after his first lecture on the "Last Days" of the ill-fated Southern Confederacy. It is hardly so taking with the general hearer as the latter, being less replete with anecdote and reminiscence, but it is full of solid information to those unacquainted with the events and reasons that led to the war and breathes throughout a fire of patriotism and an earnest appeal for the obliteration of sectional differences and a full restoration of brotherly love. The Southern people had regarded the constitution as a compact between States for their mutual good with entire out of the question. The States had created it and the States had the right to abrogate it whenever it failed of its intent. They believed that being the creature of the States the constitution was not and could not be greater than its creator, and they embraced their right to withdraw from a compact when they found it was grievous and burdensome. The North took a different view of it and by the force of arms settled the question in its favor forever. The South had accepted in earnest faith the arbitrament and is as loyal now and as ready to defend the honor of the common country in case of war with Spain or any other country, as the most patriotic of those who won in stand of lost in the great conflict of 30-odd years ago. With his peculiar and powerful powers of description, Gen. Gordon painted the scenes of the earlier days of the Confederacy with a vividness that brought them almost to the point of actual realization to his hearers and his eloquently rounded sentences delivered in his born oratorical and tragic manner were often and loudly applauded. At the close of his effort of nearly two hours during which he did not permit the interest to flag for a moment, many crowded up to shake the hand of the man whose life has been devoted to his country and who is first in the hearts of every man who sympathized with the Lost Cause. "I had rather shake his hand than that of any president that ever occupied the White House," said an enthusiastic man, whose manner showed that he meant what he said. Glorious old man! Great in war, greater in peace and may the God of all power keep and preserve him for many years to defend the honor of his section and preach the gospel of lasting union and brotherly love.

Gen. Gordon was the guest of the Tom Napier Camp of Confederates Veterans while here and they entertained him at supper at the St. Asaph.

THE Easter entertainment given by the Mission Band at the Christian church Sunday night was a most pleasant one in every particular. The pulpit was decorated with flowers and evergreens and at the hour for the commencement of the program the little members of the band marched in two and two, each couple carrying an inscribed banner. Reaching the pulpit the banners were tastily arranged about the flowers and then the large audience was treated to recitations, dialogues, songs, &c., for 1½ hours. Each little performer is deserving of congratulation, while the good cause they labored for, is so good a one that few failed to respond when the hat was passed around. The choruses and duets of the choir were a decided feature of the program. Each child present was given an Easter egg as a souvenir of the occasion. President Mrs. W. M. Bright and her noble assistants worked hard in preparing the toys for their parts, but they no doubt felt amply repaid when they saw how well they had pleased the audience.

WALTER FORRESTER.

STILL GIVING IT TO M'KINLEY AND HANNA.

FRANKFORT, April 9.—The public at last has come to the same opinion of McKinley that I expressed nearly a year ago. He may avoid the exposure of his duplicity in the Spanish negotiations, but he can never outlive the suspicion that his conduct has aroused corruption. It is not for the "business interests" in general that McKinley is intriguing Congress; it is for a little coterie headed by S-Mark Hanna. It is for those who claim the doubtful credit of having bought the presidency.

If these "business interests" are to emasculate our National character, if they are to put a price on the lives of our sailors, and if they are to dictate our foreign policy in times like the present, then I predict that the young men of the South and West who have voted with the republicans on account of the currency issue, will vote for a democrat in 1899. If the "business interests" demand the renunciation of the American spirit, the "business interests" will get a swift kick and a hard swat the next time the people get to the polls.

McKinley is doing more than all the other influences of the time to elect Bryan in 1899. Nothing else is talked of but the Spanish business and no-self-respecting American can talk about it without getting sick when he contemplates that putty-faced counterfeit that is slobering over his work as S-Mark Hanna's man. Ugh!

WALTER FORRESTER.

MIDDLEBURG.

Marbles are now claiming the attention of our young patrels.

Peaches, pears and plums are all killed in this section.

All hail to Consul General Fitzhugh Lee! He is one of few that both North and South, Yankees and Dixielites could unite on.

Decoration day will be observed at the cemetery at this place. The Middleburg band will furnish music for the occasion.

Miss Helen Sharp, the very accomodating postmaster at Yosemite, is now the owner of a bicycle and with bloomers she will be a new woman.

Farmers have been making great headway the past three days. But little gardening has been done on account of the rains and excessive cold weather.

Rev. W. E. Foster, of Louisville, preached at the Baptist church Sunday morning and evening. Rev. F. L. Creech preached at the M. E. church at Bruce's Chapel Sunday.

The writer and Fred Durham had the pleasure of attending the second rendition of the Old Maid's Convention at Liberty Wednesday night. Prof. Caldwell gave some recitations and impersonations, among them being short speeches by Joe C. S. Blackburn and Col. W. C. P. Breckinridge. Joe was arraigning the boss arch traitor in the late presidential campaign, and "Willy Breech" was denouncing democrats, yet asking for their votes. About $40 were taken in. C. C.

It costs a good deal to run the president of these United States. In addition to his salary of $50,000, he is given $36,000 to pay the salaries of his subordinates. His private secretary is paid $3,250, his assistant secretary $2,250, his stenographer $1,800, five messengers each $1,200, a steward $1,800, two doorkeepers each $1,200, four other clerks at good salaries, one telegraph operator, two ushers $1,400 each, a night usher at $1,200, a watchman at $900, and the man who takes care of the fires receives $84, a year. In addition to this there is given him $8,000 for incidental expenses, such as stationery, carpets and the care of the presidential stables. Under another heading there is given him nearly $40,000 more. Of this $12,500 are for repays and refurbishing the White House, $2,500 for fuel, $4,000 for the greenhouse, $15,000 for gas, matches and the stable. The White House therefore costs the country considerably over $125,000 a year.

The Gethsemane Monks do not bury in coffins. The New Haven paper in telling of the burial of a Mr. Dunn, of Atlanta, who died there says: "No useless coffin inclosed his breast," but, dressed in the brown habit of St. Benedict, with the circular carefully wrapped about his body, and the cowl drawn carefully over his head, so as to cover his face, they laid him away to await the general resurrection.

"A word to the wise is sufficient" and a word from the wise should be sufficient, but you ask who are the wise? Those who know. The oft-repeated experience of trustworthy persons may be taken for knowledge. Mr. W. M. Terry says Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other in the market. He has been in the drug business at Elizabethtown, Ky., for twelve years; has sold hundreds of bottles of this remedy and nearly all other cough medicines manufactured, which shows conclusively that Chamberlain's is the most satisfactory to the people, and is the best. For sale rag & Hocker, Druggists.

POLITICAL POINTS.

We don't know exactly what a "politicastro" is, but the president hasn't yet proven that he is not "it."—Hopkinsville Kentuckian.

McCreary's candidacy meets with much favor in this locality and he will receive a united support.—Level Green Cor. Mt. Vernon Signal.

Judge J. P. Tarlton, of Kentucky, was elected president of the League of Bimetallic Clubs at Indianapolis. W. J. Bryan addressed the convention.

In the House Mr. Lentz, rep., of Ohio, made a bitter attack on the administration, declaring that the president's delay was in the interest of stock jobbers.

"No sir, I am not a candidate for judge of the court of appeals, nor any other office, nor will I be," says Judge T. Z. Morrow in answer to the question as to his intentions.

The election contest of Josiah Patterson against Ed Carmack has been decided in favor of the latter by the house committee. This will be the last hearing of Josiah in public life. He and Bynum and other little subsidized satellites of Grover Cleveland of their class have had their lights put out forever.—Owensboro Messenger.

CRAB ORCHARD.

Toothache is epidemic in Crab Orchard, but with two good dentists in town I think it will soon subside.

Mrs. A. Adams is visiting her mother, Mrs. Jane Buchanan. Mrs. J. F. Cummings, Misses Berdie James and Anna Brionaugh of Stanford, came to Crab Orchard to display their Easter bonnets Sunday.

The Easter display of millinery at the opening of Miss Pearl Phillips and Mrs. Little King was all that could be desired in a town of Crab Orchard's size and they certainly should be able to supply everybody in this vicinity.

Charles Snyder, of Louisville, is at home trying to get well. He has had rheumatism and after trying the best medical aid of Louisville concluded that mother was able to do more than any one, so came home to get the benefit of her careful nursing. He is rapidly getting better. Mr. Frank Johnson and sister, of Harrodsburg, are guests of Mr. Chris. McClure's family. Dr. Will Myers came on a visit to his grandmother, Mrs. M. A. Harris, Saturday. He has not yet decided where he will locate. The many friends of Miss Eva Stegar regret to hear of her being confined to her bed by sickness. Mrs. J. M. Black returned to her home in Knoxville Friday after a pleasant visit to her mother, Mrs. M. E. Fish. Miss Daisy Potter, a bewitching little blonde of Manchester, is visiting the family of Chas. Hedd, Jr., consequently, the Chappell's Gap Pike is the principal street in Crab Orchard at present. Mrs. Mary Anderson, wife of the lately deceased Rev. J. A. Anderson, is very sick at her home in Crab Orchard.

In Monroe County, Tenn., John McGee and son, Joe, shot and killed Henry and Ernest Howard and James Murph and mortally wounded Tom Howard. The Howards were brothers and sons-in-law of the elder McGee, and the killing was the result of a family feud, caused by a runaway marriage.

In no country are there more diamonds to be found than in the United States, according to the population. It is estimated by a leading Malden Lane, New York, diamond dealer that there are upward of $500,000,000 worth of diamonds in this country.

Talk about slaves in petticoats, not infrequently a woman and a cow are seen together pulling a coal cart thro' the streets of a North German city, the man driver touching them up gently with a whip as he walks beside them.

Dr. Reynolds, of Elizabethtown, was helped to celebrate his 51st birth anniversary by over 100 babies he had assisted into this world, all wishing he may go out when he must, easily, and land where there are no crying babies.

William Frederick Cuday earned the title of "Buffalo Bill" by killing 4,250 buffalos in 18 months. This slaughter was to supply meat for the laborers who were constructing a railroad in Western Kansas.

After all Emile Zola goes free. The court of Cassation has quashed the verdict against him and has not ordered any new trial. He will come to this country to lecture.

I was reading an advertisement of Chamberlain's Cough, Cidher and Diarrhoea Remedy. In the Worcester Enterprise recently, which leads me to write this. Let me truthfully say I never used any remedy equal to it for colic and diarrhoea. I have never had to use more than one or two doses to cure the worst case with myself or children.—W. A. Capital Stock $100,000. Surplus, $15,750.

Attention of the public is called to the fact that this is the only National Bank in Stanford. Under the provisions of the National Bank Act depositors are secured not only by the capital stock, but by the stockholders' liability for an amount equal to the stock so deposited that this institution is secured by a fund of $200,000. This sum is available for the payment of its debts, and each year to the United States Government and its agents, thus securing additional and perfect safety to depositors.
